General List of Spring Flowering Bulbs

Darwin Tulips

The colors include the brilliant scarlets and crimsons, and the more somber tones of red. The shades of rose and pink, of violet, and purple are unsurpassed for their delicacy or their richness of color. There are slate blue and blue-violets which might almost be called blue, while Dumas' "Black Tulip" is very nearly realized in some of the dark maroon varieties. There are no yellows. All the bronze and buff tones are Breeders; while bright yellow and orange-scarlet must be sought among the Cottage Tulips. The Darwins may be left undisturbed for years, and if taken care of, we have known them to last many years. The varieties offered are the best; all old-time, inferior sorts have been omitted.

The figure following the name indicates the relative time of flowering.

New Darwin Tulips

Dutch Hybridists are constantly improving bulbs. They have accomplished especially fine results with Tulips during the past ten years, and it will be only a matter of time until the now popular varieties are replaced by greatly improved kinds. Many of these lovely new creations are still too expensive to be offered but we want to introduce now those sorts that can be sold for a moderate price.

About twenty kinds that have received awards, medals and recognition from the most important horticultural organizations in Europe are herewith given.

If you have the standard kinds, try a few of these new ones and win that first prize at your spring Tulip show next year.

Cottage Tulips

HYBRID COTTAGE AND TRIUMPH TULIPS

The Cottage Tulips come into bloom in early May. They are hardy and robust, with long, slender, but very stiff stems. The flowers are mostly long and oval, many of them with the petals gracefully reflexed. The Cottage Tulips as a class are rich in the more delicate and artistic shades of yellow, orange, and fawn with salmon, old rose and amber. They are the best of all Tulips for cutting and they develop best when planted outdoors, including the earlier kinds.

Parrot Tulips

We urge you to grow some of these quaintly shaped flowers particularly for house decoration. The artistic forms and colorings make them especially suitable for cut flower purposes; in the garden, if planted in borders or groups, they are not always satisfactory, as they lack the vigorous, straight stems of the other Tulips with the exception of one variety, the beautiful novelty "Fantasy" which has as straight and tall a stem as a Darwin Tulip. All Parrot Tulips are extremely effective planted in long drifts in front of evergreens.

Rembrandt Tulips

When the coloring matter of a "self color" has become split up into stripes and blotches, that particular flower is called "broken" or "rectified." When the Darwin Tulips "break" into these variations, they are called "Rembrandt" Tulips. They are very decorative but should be planted by themselves. They require the same cultural treatment as the other May-flowering Tulips, blooming during the month of May in our latitude, and about a month earlier in far southern sections.

When used for bedding, it is better that new bulbs be secured each year, for the old bulbs will not do well the second season unless they have been allowed to mature and the foliage to die down before being removed from the beds.

In the following list the handsomest sorts alone are represented, while many of the better known varieties are omitted because they are surpassed by the newer kinds. Detailed planting directions are included with the invoice.

Chinese Sacred Lily

(Narcissus Polyanthus Orientalis)

The "Shui Sin Far," or Water Fairy Flower, Joss Flower or Flower of the Gods, etc., as it is called by the Celestials, is a variety of Narcissus, bearing in profusion chaste flowers of silvery white, with golden yellow cups. They are of exquisite beauty and entrancing perfume.

The bulbs, of large size and great vitality, are of luxuriant growth, producing several spikes of flowers; the incredibly short time required to bring bulbs into bloom (four to six weeks after planting) is one of the wonders of Nature. You can almost see them grow, succeeding almost everywhere and with everybody. Grow in shallow bowls of water, with enough pebbles to prevent them from toppling over when in bloom.

French Roman Hyacinths

The flowers are delightfully fragrant and each bulb will throw up from three to five spikes. For forcing four bulbs are generally planted in a 5-inch pan. Because of their early flowering and ease of growth, they are successfully grown in bowls with pebbles in the same manner as Paper-White Narcissi. Flowers may be had from December until March if plantings are made in succession.

* Halli (Lycoris squamigera). Produces in early spring, attractive green foliage, which grows until July when it ripens and disappears. About a month later, as if by magic, the flower stalks spring from the ground to a height of 2 to 3 feet, developing an umbel of large and beautiful, lily-shaped flowers, 8 to 12 in number, of a delicate lilac-pink shaded with clear blue. The bulb is perfectly hardy without any protection; it must be planted in the fall. Cover the crown about four inches $0.75		$9.00

Anemone

(Half Hardy—Must Have Protection)

These popular flowers of French origin are exceedingly useful as a decorative plant for house or garden, and fine for cutting. If planted outdoors in the fall they must be well protected with leaves or other litter; they may also be planted in the spring in well drained soil, and will flower during the summer, starting in May

Brodiaeas

(Hardy—Give Light Protection)

These plants have a small bulb, producing grassy leaves near the ground, and very slender, but stiff, naked stems bearing a head of waxy flowers of great lasting quality. Their culture is the same as for Narcissi, and just as easy as for that flower. They are easily naturalized in almost any soil. They are especially happy under oak and deciduous trees, in crevices in rocks, or in rough, gritty soils.

Camassia

(Hardy)

There are few bulbous plants that meet climatic or soil conditions better or give a more attractive bloom. They are hardy without protection, and thrive either under ordinary garden conditions or when naturalized in open, moist woods or in not too dense a grassy growth. The flower stems are 4 feet high with as many as a hundred star-shaped flowers measuring one and one-half inches across and flowering in long succession. September delivery.

Calochortus

(MARIPOSA OR BUTTERFLY TULIPS)

(Hardy)

Until one has seen a good collection of these plants, he has no idea how much Nature can do in the variation of one flower. Cup-shaped flowers, one to many on a stem, wonderfully marked with eyes and dots and pencilings in rich colors, are characteristics. Each strain carries out the plan on a color scheme of its own, and then can be compared only with the orchids in wonderful variability of beauty. "Mariposa" is simply the Spanish word for butterfly, and is applied to these Tulips because the eyes and markings of the flowers are so much like those on a butterfly's wings. The bulbs are small and should be planted about 2½ inches deep and covered during winter.

They bloom at the time of the Crocuses, producing dwarf flower spikes, bearing from 12 to 15 flowers of a sky-blue with a pure white heart, creating a lovely effect. They should be planted in the fall, 3 inches deep, about 18 bulbs to a square foot, in a sunny location or in half shade and in places where they can remain undisturbed for a number of years. They seed themselves, forming natural colonies $1.90		$18.00

Colchicum - Meadow Saffron

They are strongly recommended for planting in the rockery between Sedums or creeping plants, where their bold flowers are seen to the best advantage. Crocus

AUTUMN AND SPRING FLOWERING SPECIES

Besides the Dutch Crocuses there are certain species that bloom very much earlier in the year, often before the snow has gone. The flowers of these wild sorts are smaller than those of the Dutch kinds, but they are as vigorous and free as the others. Given a sunny position in the rock garden, or a sheltered position in grass where the sun may encourage them freely, they will surprise you by their hardy appearance in the face of cold and storms.

Crocus Imperati often flowers in late February, and is closely followed by Crocus Sieberi, a fuller, purer mauve sort; it has as a companion the deep rich yellow Crocus Susianus, which is even more attractive in the bud stage with its dark, rich brown flowers on the exterior of the segments. Once planted they will take care of themselves for many years. Then comes Crocus Tommasinianus, an exquisite vasselike form, in color varying from a pale mauve to quite a rich purple. This variation is one of its great attractions. These all increase as freely as do the Dutch varieties.

Crocus Vernus

(DUTCH CROCUS—HARDY)

The finding of these Crocus in bloom is one of the genuine delights of life. Though we may eventually plant them by the thousands, or may have been so long at gardening that little surprises us, yet that first Crocus is a great event. And we suggest that in every garden, no matter how large or how small, there be some definite Crocus corner which we can watch during those early days of March.

Eremurus - Foxtail Lily; Giant Asphodels

These astonishing plants are just beginning to find their way into American gardens, and are among the noblest of bulbous plants. A well grown clump of Eremurus may justly be regarded as an achievement to be proud of. The great flower stalk, eight feet tall and more, rises from a crowded tuft of long, narrow leaves, and is covered by a flower spike two or three feet long, composed of closely set, bell-shaped flowers, in colors of rose, yellow, white and coppery pink. When flowering is over, the foliage disappears entirely, but reappears very early in the spring. To fill the great bare space left when the plant goes to rest, Hardy Asters may be planted near it. In winter a mulch of straw over the crown is a safeguard. These plants enjoy a rich soil, and a well drained, sunny situation. Plant about 5 to 6 inches deep.

Erythronium - Dog's-tooth Violet

(Hardy)

These are charming woodland plants, producing in early April, small, lily-like flowers of which the colors run in delicate tints of white, pink, cream, bright yellow and rose. They thrive in shaded corners or crevices of rock work. Their beauty is enhanced by their richly mottled leaves. They like a light, rather moist, but well drained soil. Plant the corms about three inches deep.

Eranthis - Winter Aconite

(Hardy—Give Slight Protection)

*Hyemalis (Winter Aconite). These produce, several weeks before the Crocuses are in bloom, little yellow flowers like Buttercups about three inches above the ground, with settings of fine green, frilled collars which never seem to mind the worst of weather conditions. Will thrive under trees where few other plants can hold their own. They seed themselves freely. Plant firmly two inches deep in shade or half shade, about eighteen bulbs to a square foot. Bulbs should be planted upon arrival; many failures are due to late planting, as bulbs, when out of the ground a long time, perish from "dry rot" 100 Bulbs | 1000 Bulbs || | $2.00 | $18.00 |

Freesia

(Tender—Indoors Only)

This is one of the most beautiful of all Cape bulbs, possessing a peculiar grace of form, and its fragrance is most delightful, one pot of a dozen bulbs being sufficient to perfume a whole house.

When planting Freesia bulbs in pots or pans, they may be spaced two inches apart and must be staked as they grow. To produce the finest flowers they should be grown cool; a day temperature of 60 degrees and night temperature of 45 to 50 degrees is best; they like plenty of water at all times.

Galanthus - Snowdrops

(Hardy)

These are particularly effective under hedges, under cedar trees and in thin woodland. They are the first to open in the spring and are very lovely. They dislike being moved and should be left alone to naturalize themselves. Plant two inches deep; mulch in winter with straw, bay, leaves or well-cayed manure.

Fritillaria - Mission Bells

(Hardy)

Fritillarias are bulbous plants of the woodlands. The stems are leafy and most graceful, with many pendent, bell-like flowers. One species found in Southern California is called "Mission Bells," while in other places local species are called Brown or Chocolate Lilies.

In the West there are two types: The true Mission Bells do better in a clay soil in full sun. The woodland Fritillarias like woodland soils and conditions, and in cultivation some shade and a free soil. They have proved hardy as far north as Wisconsin.

Fritillaria - Crown Imperial

(Hardy)

One of the most characteristic plants of old-fashioned gardens. It is the most robust of all the species. The flowers are borne in umbels on stout stems, 3 to 4 inches high. By most old gardeners known as the Kaiser Crown. It is very easily grown and an attractive addition to the garden, blooming at the same time as Tulips. The bulbs should be planted at once upon receipt, as they easily get damaged if left lying about. Owing to the scarcity of this bulb, we urge you to order at once, please.

Iris Reticulata - Fragrant Iris

Hardy With Protection

This lovely species is one of the treasures of the garden or rock garden. It can best be described as a small form of the Spanish or Dutch Iris. Its greatest value lies in the fact that it may be forced into bloom in the house with the greatest ease. Six or eight bulbs put into a 4- or 5-inch pot when received will bloom about Christmas time. The fragrant blossoms remind one of a bunch of fresh violets.

They are not particular about the soil in which they grow. They are ideal for the wild garden but they are not to be despised in the border, especially if they are left alone for two or three years without being disturbed in any way. They are splendid in the rock garden. Never plant less than 12 or 18 bulbs in a clump.

flower and shrubby borders, and most valuable for wild gardens and woodlands, where they should be largely naturalized. Wood Hyacinths may be planted in bare shady places, and odd corners which often have a desert-like appearance which can thus be rendered bright and cheerful. They will also thrive under Fir and Pine trees, where few other plants will grow. Plant September to November, 6 inches deep, to obtain fine flower spikes.

ChrysanthemumsHARDY GARDEN VARIETIES

Aladdin. The new perpetual summer and early autumn flowering Chrysanthemum. Blooms from 5 to 6 weeks ahead of any other outdoor Chrysanthemum. Its color resembles that of the famous Talisman Rose. Flowers which appear in late July and early August are borne on stiff stems in an endless procession until frost. This "Mum" received eight awards and gold medals this summer alone and is considered the finest plant introduced for 1932. Supply is limited. $2.50 per 3; $10.00 per doz.; $75.00 per 100.
Adironda. The small compact flowers completely cover the plant when in bloom. The flowers are a rich bronze with coppery gold center. Very early and very hardy.
Angelo. A lovely, very early, free-flowering pink variety. The large blooms resist the effects of bad weather to a remarkable degree and are therefore always good.
Argenteuillais. Well shaped scarlet bronzy flowers tipped with gold are produced in great quantities. Exceptionally hardy variety of medium height.
Boston. The beautiful bronzy orange flowers are produced in great abundance in well-branched beads on tall, erect stems. Also noted for its unusual hardness.
Bronze Button. Late, free flowering, of medium height, producing large beads of tiny button-like, bronze-colored flowers. Very hardy and a great bloomer.
Brune Poitevine. An outstanding and fine variety of medium height. The flowers are fairly large, loose in structure and produced in great abundance. The deep velvety reddish bronze flower petals have a golden reverse, greatly adding to the general beauty of the plant. Flowers very early and the plant is exceptionally hardy.
Capt. R. H. Cook. A most popular pompon-flowered variety. The clear deep rose-colored petals are tipped golden bronze, creating a most unique appearance. Tall grower; hardy.
Carrie. As early as Glory of Seven Oaks and of practically the same habit, but the flowers are a clean, clear pale yellow.
Comoleta. Very tall growing sort. Late-flowering. Very large and double yellow flowers with reddish orange shadings.
Daybreak. Virtually a duplicate of the lovely and popular Seashell. Daybreak will flower with us about October 10th, two weeks before Seashell, and can be depended on for a fine display each season. The flower is of single type, almost 3 inches across, soft shell-pink in color, and has a noticeable sweet fragrance. Splendid variety for cutting or garden display. Strong and free growing.
Edna. A fine dwarf variety producing quantities of small blush-pink flowers 2 inches in diameter. Late flowering.
Excelsior. In habit much the same as white Doty but with most brilliant golden yellow flowers. It is perhaps more prolific, certainly an easily grown and most satisfactory variety.
Frances Whitlesey. A very decided improvement in this particular color. Habit is stocky and dwarf, averaging 18 inches in height. Color, rich bronze and garnet—just right for the fall garden. It commences to flower in late September and makes a gorgeous showing through October, having the ability to resist considerable frost in the open flowers.

Firelight. Tall, midseason, large flowering. Very showy spikes covered with beads of red flowers tipped with copper. Very hardy.
Globe d'Or. Dwarf, midseason, free-flowering sort. Produces clusters of canary-yellow flowers, 2 inches across, with dark center.

Harvest Home. Beautiful midseason-flowering variety. Medium height and covered with large golden yellow flowers about 3 inches across.
Idolph. About 18 to 24 inches high. Midseason; flowering very profusely. Produces light rose-pink, very double flowers with yellow center.
Indian. Late-flowering, very hardy variety of medium height. Flowers are shaggy and of peculiarly pleasing coppery red shade. A good sort.
Jean Cumming. Introduced in 1931, this new variety is regarded as a very great improvement on older white varieties. Large flowers of purest white, with the softest yellow and blush shading at the center of the buds. Growth erect and wiry, height medium. Commences flowering about September 15th, and having exceptional keeping qualities, is undoubtedly the best white variety to date.
Marie Antoinette. A late, sure blooming sort, bushy and very free-flowering. Excellent deep pink flowers.
R. Marion Hatton. For mass color-effect in the garden, we know of no variety comparable to this new yellow. The flower is of the Decorative Pompon type, not large or impressive in itself, but in addition to exceptional freedom in blooming, it is one of the earliest to flower, and certainly the brightest canary-yellow flower available, flowering from late September on. It is remarkably resistant to frost.
Mitzi. A delightfully free-flowering variety. Rather late but the small, brilliant clear yellow flowers light up the garden. The best and hardiest yellow button variety.
Mrs. F. H. Bergen. A lovely pale pink variety, the center of the flowers a creamy white. The whole plant is of medium height and noted for its good foliage as well as hardness.
Mrs. H. Craig. Very early-flowering sort, rather dwarf in growth. Large, shaggy yellow flowers overlaid with orange-crimson.
Mrs. H. Harrison. Medium height. Plant produces large clusters of fine, full double pink flowers with cream-pink center. Excellent pompon.

Nellie Blake. A fine Aster-flowered type. Midseason. Flowers a rich reddish copper, long lasting.
Nellie Kleris. Midseason, of medium height with splendid clear pink blossoms. Petals are decidedly incurved, and compact. Two inches across.
Oconto. The largest white 'mum for outdoor growing, flowers often 4 to 5 inches across on good strong stems, therefore excellent for cutting.
October Gold. This variety is noted for its large flowers, which are freely produced on a plant of medium height. The loose flowers open coppery orange and change gradually to golden yellow, the center of the bloom a clear yellow with lovely pink sheen.
Ouray. A lovely pompon variety, in fact, it is considered one of the most brilliant of Chrysanthemums. The masses of blooms are a rich bronze with coppery glow. Very early flowering and of medium height, noted also for its hardness.
Petite Louise. One of Totty's splendid introductions. Very early flowering and of medium height. Plants completely hidden by pale pink, shaggy flowers about 3 inches across. A very free-flowering sort and a great favorite.
Provence. Early and dwarf, very free-flowering sort. Pale pink flowers fading to white with yellow center. Excellent cut flower and hardy.
Ruth. A button-shaped variety. Rather late-flowering but always good. The small blossoms are a brilliant claret-red.
Skibo. A very early-flowering pompon type of medium height. Plant covered with blossoms which open bronze, changing to a rich yellow, retaining a small bronzy center. Flowers about 1½ inches across. Very hardy variety.
Snowdrop. Midseason and of medium height, plant rather loosely formed. The best pure white button known; is very hardy.
Tints of Gold. Early flowering, of medium height. Flowers are large, of rich golden yellow suffused with red near the base of petals. Very striking variety.
Vivid. A very striking and effective variety, the color of which very closely approaches that of the American Beauty rose—a rosy crimson or amaranth shade new to the earlier flowering Chrysanthemums. Flowering about October 1st, it is extremely vigorous and very free.

White Doty. The tall, straight upright flower stalks, never needing any support, carry large heads of pure white pompon flowers. Excellent for cutting or in the background of other varieties.

Zelia. Midseason and rather tall with old-fashioned large orange flowers produced in quantity. A splendid outdoor variety.
The price of the above named sorts (except Aladdin), is $1.25 per doz.; $8.00 per 100.

Hybrid Perpetual Roses

The varieties listed below are unquestionably the best that can be selected in the Hybrid Perpetual class, which, before the development of the Hybrid Teas, was the most popular type for garden planting, and even now they dare not be overlooked, but should be used extensively in conjunction with the other sorts, and especially so in localities where the hardiness of the Hybrid Tea varieties has not been established. The collection here offered embraces as complete a range of colors as it is possible to bring together in such a number of plants, with freedom of flowering, perfect form, fragrance, hardiness and general excellence.

Polyantha Roses

A type of Roses which is deservedly very popular for bedding purposes. They form shapely, compact, bushy specimens, most of them growing about 8 inches high, producing in great profusion, from early in the season, without stopping, until severe frost, trusses of small flowers. Pruning is not necessary; simply remove the past season's flower stems.

New Climbing Roses

Mme. Gregoire Staechelin. The first climbing Rose to which a Gold Medal was awarded at the International Test Garden for Roses at Bagatelle, Paris, France. Mme. Gregoire Staechelin has inherited the best traits of both of its popular parents, Frau Karl Druschki and Chateau de Clos Vougeot. The plant is of strong climbing habit growing 12 feet or more high and has large disease resistant foliage. The main stems grow vigorously upright and all along these the following year, side branches, 12 to 14 inches long will develop with exquisite, full, very fragrant flowers. At the tips, the long pointed buds are crimson at first as the sepals divide, then the firm outer petals show splashes of carmine as the flower opens with an iridescent pearl pink inside. A truly wonderful distinct Rose and probably the pioneer of a new race. Strong, two-year-old plants, $1.00 each; $10.00 per doz.

Chaplin's Pink Climber. Unquestionably the most important acquisition in climbing Roses since the introduction of Dr. W. Van Fleet and Paul's Scarlet Climber, universally recognized as the most popular climbing Roses, and to which Chaplin's Pink Climber will prove an equally valuable companion. This striking novelty originated in the same nursery in which Paul's Scarlet Climber was raised. It is a cross between Paul's Scarlet and American Pillar, and like its parents is of vigorous growth, perfectly hardy, producing its large flowers, similar in size and form to Paul's Scarlet, profusely in strong trusses of from 8 to 12 flowers each, but in color a rich lively pink. At the Spring Show of the National Rose Society of England in 1928, it was the outstanding feature among the new Roses and was awarded the Society's Gold Medal. Strong, two-year-old plants, $2.50 per three; $8.00 per doz.; $60.00 per 100.

Hardy Climbing and Rambler Roses

Climbing Roses require no pruning in the spring beyond the cutting out of very old or dead wood, and the shortening of the laterals and long canes to make the growth conform to the space to be covered; but a severe pruning in July, directly after they have finished flowering, is beneficial. Cutting away at that time all old flowering wood will encourage a vigorous growth, which will give an abundance of flowers the following season. We offer on this page a selection of twelve of the most modern Hardy Climbing and Rambler Roses.

American Pillar. A single-flowering variety of great beauty. The flowers are of large size, 3 to 4 inches across, of a lovely shade of pink, with a clear white eye and clusters of yellow stamens. These flowers are borne in immense bunches, and a large plant in full bloom is a sight not easily forgotten. $4.00 per doz.; $30.00 per 100.

Bess Lovett. Large, fairly full flowers of light crimson-red, cup-shaped, and borne in long-stemmed clusters suitable for cutting; sweetly fragrant. Plant very strong, exceedingly free flowering, with fine, glossy foliage almost immune to disease. Probably the best of the red climbers, with flowers of Hybrid Tea size. Better habits than Climbing American Beauty but totally unlike it in color and form. $4.00 per doz.; $30.00 per 100.

Climbing American Beauty. Its name is somewhat misleading, but it is one of the best climbing Roses. A strong, healthy, vigorous grower, frequently making shoots from 10 to 12 feet long, and good sized flowers for a climbing Rose that blooms so freely. Color a pleasing rose-pink; of splendid form, good substance. $4.00 per doz.; $30.00 per 100.

Dorothy Perkins. Soft shell-pink; flowering profusely in large clusters. Very fragrant and lasting. A grand Rose in every way. $4.00 per doz.; $30.00 per 100.

Dr. W. Van Fleet. A Rose, which on account of its dainty color and exquisitely shaped buds and flowers, appeals to everyone. The long, pointed buds are of a rich flesh-pink on stems 12 to 18 inches long. Splendid for cutting. $4.00 per doz.; $30.00 per 100.

Flower of Fairfield. Also called the "Everblooming Crimson Rambler." Combines the beauty of the well known Crimson Rambler with the continuous-blooming habit, the new growth bearing large clusters of crimson blooms through the summer continuously. Be sure to include this sort in your selection. $4.00 per doz.; $30.00 per 100.

Mary Wallace. Originated at the Maryland Station of the Department of Agriculture by the late lamented Dr. W. Van Fleet. The Department describes it as a Pillar Rose, making a fine strong, self-supporting plant 6 to 8 feet high, with large, glossy foliage, blooming with great freedom in spring and bearing a considerable number of fine buds in summer and fall. Flowers very large, generally exceeding 4 inches across; well formed, semi-double, of a bright, clear rose-pink with salmon base to the petals. $4.00 per doz.; $30.00 per 100.

Paul's Scarlet Climber. No other Rose, in any class, can compare with it for brilliancy of color, which is a vivid scarlet. Flowers are semi-double, very freely produced in clusters of from 3 to 20 flowers each on much branched canes. It is of strong, climbing habit and perfectly hardy. One of the most popular climbing Roses. $5.00 per doz.; $40.00 per 100.

Silver Moon. Different from all other Roses, with beautiful semi-double flowers, 4½ inches and over in diameter; pure white in color, petals of great substance, beautifully cupped, forming a Clematis-like flower. The large bunch of yellow stamens in the center adds to its attractiveness. $4.00 per doz.; $30.00 per 100.

Star of Persia. A brilliant new Rose with flowers on the order of the lovely old Harrison's Yellow; semi-double, bright yellow and about 3 inches across. It makes a striking low climber or pillar Rose from 8 to 10 feet high, bursting into showers of sparkling bloom in June. It does not fade and the flowers last several weeks. $8.00 per doz.; $60.00 per 100.

White Dorothy Perkins. A pure white climber, identical with Dorothy Perkins except the color. Without doubt the best white climber. $4.00 per doz.; $30.00 per 100.

Rosa Hugonis

This species, recently introduced from China, is unlike any other Rose. It is of shrublike habit of growth and naturally forms symmetrical bushes about 6 feet high, and the same in diameter, and while not suited to plant in the Rose border, it is an invaluable subject when planted in connection with other shrubs or as single specimens in the garden. Its delicate yellow, single flowers are produced on long, arching sprays early in May, every branch of the previous season's growth becomes lined on both sides to the very tip with these attractive flowers, and after it has finished flowering it remains an attractive decorative bush for the balance of the season; perfectly hardy. Strong, 2-year-old plants, $4.00 per doz.; $30.00 per 100.

HOW TO ORDER

Quality of Stock Offered

Our plants are all grown in open nursery fields for two years or more; are given constant care and cultivation and when sent out are hardy, strong, well-developed, nursery-grown specimens with excellent roots, ready to give immediate results. Pot plants are never shipped except in those cases where such plants are ordered that can not be transplanted successfully except from pots.

We do not, as a rule, divide our plants before shipping, but send the entire plant as dug from the nursery. Dividing is only done in rare cases and only then because it is necessary to get best results. No plants are carried in storage cellars or warehouses. Each order is dug fresh from the field and stock is shipped immediately after it has been packed, that same day.

It is this class of stock and careful service that has made Wayside Gardens the best known and most reliable nursery for hardy plants and rock plants in this country.

Guarantees

We guarantee all stock furnished by us to be first-class and true to name, of a size so as to give immediate results, and will replace anything, no matter what, that does not arrive in good condition, entirely at our expense. There are several causes, of course, for failure over which we have no control, therefore it is evident and reasonable that we cannot assume responsibility after stock is delivered. Poor soil, unfavorable weather, ignorant or careless culture—all contribute to failure and are beyond our control.

Quantities Ordered

We do not sell less than three plants of a kind unless offered otherwise. Twenty-five or more plants of one kind are charged at the hundred rate. Twelve to twenty-four plants of one kind are charged at the dozen rate.

Complaints

We are compelled to do our work during two very short periods in the fall and spring. In order to get stock shipped on time, it is necessary that we work late in the night. An error is occasionally made during these rush periods. We therefore, suggest that you check over plants immediately upon receipt. If any plants or bulbs have been damaged while in transit or if shortages occur, notify us promptly, and corrections will be made immediately, or new stock sent without charge for that which is damaged. No complaints can be entertained ten days after date of shipment.

Remittances

These should be made by check, bank draft, post-office order or express money order. Please write the amount remitted upon your order. Your remittance and your order will be acknowledged at once when received.

Terms of Payment

We shall be very glad to open charge accounts when desired; in this case please send bank or trade references with your order. All charge accounts are due the first day of the month following date of purchase.

C. O. D.—We do not like to send plants or other perishable goods collect on delivery, and do so only at your risk.

Shipping Directions

All plants and bulbs will be shipped at the proper time for planting. Shipments will be made by parcel post or express at our option, unless specific shipping instructions are received with order.

Shipments to Canada. The Canadian Government requires a special permit for bulbs and plants. Canadian clients may obtain a permit number from the Secretary, Destructive Insect and Pest Act Advisory Board, Ottawa. This permit number should appear on the order.
